INT. BOBIENSKI'S WONDERBOX WORKSHOP - MORNING

All the other WORKSHOP ELVES stare at Bixie. She smiles at them and waves.

BIXIE BOO
Hellllllur!!!

The workshop is one large rectangle room packed with christmas decorations. Six large banquet tables are spaced out on one side of the room making individual workstations.

Each workstation has a brown box labelled "CONFIDENTIAL" on it. On the other side of the workshop is an eight foot tall german cuckoo clock. In front of it is a circular table with an hourglass sitting on it.

Bixie places a picture of a rabbit at her workstation, and then another picture of a rabbit, and then a picture of a group of rabbits. Then she pulls out a stuffed rabbit and carries it over to PATSY RIPHORN who's standing beside her at her workstation.

BIXIE BOO
I made this for you Patsy. It's an exact replica of a Florida white Patsy. It even weighs 6 pounds Patsy. It has a short rounded body, ruby eyes, a rounded head and of course short erect ears.

Bixie stares at Patsy waiting for a response. Patsy opens her mouth to speak -

BIXIE BOO
 Patsy!

PATSY RIPHORN
 Oh thanks dear, Richard will love this. I can rub it all over his penis when I get home.

Bixie nods eagerly. MUCK walks past them carrying a box. He stops at an empty workstation and begins to unpack.

PATSY RIPHORN
 Didn't think he'd be back. Woof!

Muck pulls out an electric drill. He looks over to the girls and REVS it. Bixie jumps into Patsy's arms. They look into each others eyes. Their faces moves ever so slowly towards each others.

STEELY DAN slowly rises up behind them. His eyes grow wide. He spots the toy bunny on Patsy's desk and shoves it in his jacket. Steely Dan covers his eyes and slowly squats down disappearing behind them.

Bixie and Patsy lips creep towards each other. Bixie jumps up to her feet. Patsy dusts her breasts off. Muck gives them a look.

PATSY RIPHORN
 Richard has that exact same drill.
 We used it just last night!

SHMUEL BLUMENTHAL, enters wearing the same uniform except for a solitary eagle feather glued to his hat. Patsy looks over at him.

PATSY RIPHORN
 Who's that? Ooooh, another mouse got in the cage. Ooooh, oooooh, oooooh.

SHMUEL
 Uh, hi everyone.

He waves and tilts his hat while curtsying. He stands up, places the hat on his head and begins to play the air recorder. Beat.

SHMUEL

I'm going to be working -

BANG a large red velvet bag crashes into Shmuel, crushing him onto the ground. Various ELVES GASP in horror.

MATHILDA BLUMENTHAL grabs a hold of the bag and pulls it and Shmuel to the center of the workshop. Shmuel MOANS. Various ELVES GASP in horror. Mathilda stops and TAPS her foot three times. Various ELVES GASP in horror.

MATHILDA

Come one and come all to the greatest shpectacular of all!!

The WORKERS look around at each other. Muck shrugs and walks over to Mathilda. The rest slowly follow.

MATHILDA

FASHTER!

They all scurry faster. Mathilda pumps her arms up into the air, the lights flicker. A fog machine pumps fog into the workshop. A HUMAN HAND reaches out of the german clock and sets down a music box and presses the play button. MUSIC begins to play. Everyone looks around in shock. Shmuel GROANS still limp underneath the bag. Various ELVES GASP in horror.

MATHILDA

Shhhh!

The bag begins to move around. A knife punctures through it. Bixie Boo faints and falls straight backwards. BANG. Everyone gives her a quick glance.

The knife tears open the bag and out emerges BOBIENSKI BLUMENTHAL in a cape and top hat. Mathilda clasps her hands gleefully. Shmuel GROANS. He dances exotically, he cartwheels, he swoops around to all of the ELVES, bowing and kissing their hands.

He trips over the music box and the music begins to skip. Bobiensi stops walks over to the music box and smashes it on the ground. He walks up in front of the ELVES and holds a pose. The human hand from the cuckoo clock puts out another music box and presses play, the song starts over.

Bobienski dances. He jumps back on top of the bag and river dances. IRISH MUSIC begins to play. Shmuel GASPS for air. Various ELVES begin to CHEER and CLAP. GARFIELD FESTIVAL steps out from the crowd of elves and dances in front of Bobiensi. Bobiensi pushes him out of the way. Garfield pushes Bobiensi out of the way and does the splits on top of the bag. Shmuel MOANS. The elves CHEER.

Bobienski grabs a christmas ornament and SMASHES it over Garfield's head. Garfield falls over unconscious. The human hand emerges from the cuckoo clock and presses pause on the music box. Bobienski drags Garfield Festival by his heels off to the side of the room.

He goes back to the center of the room and holds another pose. The human hand emerges and presses play. Two beats of music play and Bobienski strikes his final pose. Mathilda turns on the lights and Bobienski stands up. Muck walks over and helps Shmuel up. The wrappers walk back to their stations.

SHMUEL

God bless America.

Muck looks at him and lets go. Shmuel falls. Muck exits. Bobienski steps over Shmuel and gazes at his elves. Shmuel looks at Bobienski and reaches up to him with an extended arm.

BOBIENSKI

Welcome! Welcome! Welcome! Welcome to Bobienskis' Wonder Box Workshop!
